There was once a young man named Adrian. He lived in the year 1904.
He loved every year he had been through! but sometimes he wondered what the new days would be like.
He sometimes thought about 2026 or 2677 or even 3556!
Anyway he was happy with the life he was living.

One day he realized he was low on food. “Ohh golly gosh how much food have i eaten?” asked Adrian to himself.
“ Anyway i should run to the market!”
Adrian walked like a civilized man to the market.
Suddenly WHACK SHAZAM SMASH BANG!!!
The market suddenly exploded.
Luckily Adrian was to far away to get hurt.
“What the??” exclaimed Adrian.
It wasn’t just a random explosion it was a portal open and it was so powerful it bombed up the super market because the portal opened right infront of the door!
Adrian ran to the portal.
“What in the world?” said Adrian.
A elf climbed out of a portal.
“who are you?” Asked adrian.

Suddenly the elf grabbed Adrians hand and dragged him into the portal!
“whooah!!” shouted Adrian.
“Ok I'll asked once more...who are you?”
“I’m an elf ain’t it obvious dumb idiot?”
“who knows! You could be a plant, dog, cat or any other kind of thing!”
“SHUT UP!” shouted the elf.
suddenly inside the portal everything flashed.
8 seconds later everything went to normal.
“what the freak was that?” asked the elf.
“I have no idea” said Adrian.
But the world had suddenly flicked to 1,652 years.

Adrian had grown a beard and way longer hair and facial hairs.

In a few seconds zombies where coming from random places.
“They seem to be picking on us!” exclaimed Adrian.
Adrian came to block the path but the zombies where slipping past him. The elf was punching them harder and harder every second.
“get him you freaking idiot!” shouted the elf
“is every word slipping out of your mouth an insult?”
“shut your mouth idiot!”
Suddenly one of the strongest zombie bosses came uo a game them a nice WHAMM!
They woke up in the zombies hands.
He was dragging them.
“HAHAHA your my prisoners now!”
“Humph!” said Adrian angrily “I thought i was a good fighter!”
“I guess not idiot!” said the elf.
“those idiots will never get away with it” said the elf.
At that very moment the zombie king threw Adrain and the elf into a dungeon.
“what the bloody heck can we do now?” asked the elf.
They where in a dungeon that absolutely nobody could brake out of.
They really were in a jam. Snap! the elf broke out of his chains.
Then he helped Adrian get out to.
“well at least there's one thing that they didn’t make to hard to escape!

Suddenly a zombie ran right into the dungeon. “you two... he started
Are going to get killed!”
“WHAT?” shouted Adrian.
“yeah while you crappy zombies sit down and have 24 hours of peace!” screamed the elf.
“Ha ha yes your not mistaken young man!” said the zombie then slammed the door!

Chapter 2: Death

The very next day zombies took Adrian and the elf out of the dungeons.
Then tied them to a wall. Then one by one zombies threw knifes into Adrian and the elf first Adrians foot Then the elves hand but luckily every time they missed te heart or the brain! Later the zombies threw Adrian and the elf into there dungeon. They where hurt very badly.
He had cuts everywhere and so did the elf. they had fainted as soon as they got into the dungeon.
He was absolutely was in so much pain.

That night he had just woken up. “uhh I feel so terrible!” exclaimed Adrian to the elf.
The elf was still thinking hardly of a way to get out?
“hey man check this out the disgusting zombies put this thing into our dungeon!”

“I think they said it was called a security camera!” said the elf.

Suddenly the windows just smashed then a lady elf ran into the dungeon from the window.
“Hello my name is Shasha.
“I'm here to help you.”
“Wow she’s very pretty” said Adrian weakly.

Shasha took Adrian into her arms and her and the elf ran out of the window.
She brought them to her home she made them a cup of tea and she put Adrian into a bed.
Later on after the elf and Shasha had finished there tea shasha went to Adrian and took of his shirt. He was bleeding bad. He had fainted again.
She tried to fix him but it wasn’t successful.
She tried and tried but he never woke up! “hhh I think your friend may be dead!” said shasha to the elf.
Suddenly Adrian opened his eyes and threw up.
“uhh I don’t feel so good!” told Adrian.
“no you wouldn’t!” said the elf.
“I have something to tell all of you!” said Shasha.
“what?” asked the elf.

“you are in the year 3556, and the world is alot different than it used to be and everything is stranger more crimes being committed and yesterday i found out what a phone was. It sthe strangest little gadget in the world!
They call all these little gadgets technology!”
“Anyway you should get some rest Adrian. tomorrow weve got a big day to work out what the zombies want with you two!”

“goodnight said Adrian then he fell right asleep!”

Revenge 3:

Adrian came out of bed the next day and he saw Shasha and the elf chatting on the breakfast table eating coco pops
“That new brand of cereal looks new!” said Adrian trying to get attention.
“ADRIAN!!” shouted the elf and Shasha at the same time
“i see you shaved your beard!” said the elf.
“yeah” said Adrian

“Anyway we need to find out why those freaky zombies want to kill us! Said Shasha
“yep lets start thinking” said Adrian.

Meanwhile the zombies come into the dungeon to give the elf and Adrian luch (it was actually fried eyes) when he noticed that they had gone!
“Oh no what will the boss say?”
The zombie ran to the boss zombie.
“WHAT DID YOU Say!!!! Shouted the boss.

Meanwhile Adrian is shopping to get some lunch he goes into the store
Then he sees how different stores are now. Cash registers and have to scan barcodes.
“why is everything so different?” sulked Adrian.
Back at Shasha’s home she was chatting to the elf “what should we do Shasha? Our lives are in danger!”
“I know we need to save you and Adrian.”
Suddenly she looked around then the elf looked at her.
They went up to each other and kissed each other on the lips.
Suddenly there house just went

Bam!!!!!

The house just exploded.

The elf had tears in his eyes he was so so hurt.
Way in the store that Adrian was in, everyone could hear the explosion.
Adrian ran to see what the matter was. He saw there house exploded and then he caught his eye on a zombie running out of the trees.
“you did it you son of a @#$!*!”
“do not use language like that young fellow! “Come on lets have a little fight” Adrian took out a sword Shasha had given him
“hahaha” laughed the zombie.

“Lets have a little fight!”
Adrian ran to the zombie then the zombie shoved a sword through his leg “owww!”

They went on fighting and fighting.
“you murdering !@#*@%&!” shouted Adrian

Adrian fought and fought like a man
“Take that!” “And that!”
Anyway the zombie was still beating adrian up when the zombie shot out brown goo onto the elf.
The poor elf had been through enough when the brown goo landed on his face.
The elf started turning rotten. INTO A ZOMBIE!

“Oh crap!” said Adrien

The elf got right up and took out his knife

The elf ran to adrian and punched to sword out of his hand.
“Oh no now its a punching fight!” told Adrian.
The zombie runs up to Adrien (the king zombie) but Adrien smacks him in the face.
He gets knocked out but then the elf zombie ran and whacked Adrian
Adrian whacked and whacked and whacked the zombie elf and finally he beat him up!
Adrian felt so bad for injuring his friend.
Adrien ran to a hotel and went to bed.
Meanwhile the Boss zombie was planning something stupid.
He was giving a speech to his fellow zombies.
“today we are going to have war on the human world and kill every single creature there so zombies can rule the world and take over there land we will be the best zombies in the universe!” said the king zombie
“Now lets get moving!”

Chapter 4: War

They all set to work and they created guns swords helmets knifes many other weapons.
Anyway the very next day Adrian woke up and ate beakfast.

He had coco pops with milk.
Then he had a coffee.
Later on he went to the gun store to get weapons for the battle (wich could be the end of the world!)
He had heard it on the news about a zombie reporting that he would have a HUGE battle against the world.
Adrian had been shaking from of what he heard since he woke up.
Many men were buying weapons at the store because they where all soldiers who were going to fight for war.
Adrian had always wanted to be a soldier, but he knew how terrible war was.

He walked into the weapon store and saw how huge the crowd, was in the weapon store.
He finally came to the gun section and bought 8 guns 2 grenades 5 knifes 1 radio. to store in his room until the war began.
Nobody even told him to fight in war, but he knew that was his destiny.
He'd seen what wars are like, but it was nothing like he thought.
He came to the checkout “hello mate!” said an old aussie at the checkout.
“I see you are going to fight in that terrible war!”
“Yes, i am and I still do not know exactly how bad it will be.” said Adrian.
“Trust me i fought in one war and ugh it was horrible!” said the old Ozzie.
“Well see ya later man have a good one!” said Adrian.
The old Ozzie smiled, for he knew war would not be a place for Adrian.
Later on Adrian was in his room searching in his cupboard.
He found an old picture of world war 1

He was sure this war would be worse because it had zombie's robots and everything like that.
Anyway, the zombies where still at work making knifes swords and guns.
The elf was a zombie still and he was working very hard.
The boss zombie was very proud of his fellow zombies.
The elf zombie caught his eye on a zombie fighting with another zombie.
“I HATE YOU!! THAT WAS MY WORD YOU STOLE IT!!!” said the first

“you @#$@(*& piece of crap!!” said the other.
“YOU BLOODY ZOMBIE!!”
Anyway enough with that.
“Stop it you two bloody idiots!” said the zombie elf.
“FINE!!!” shouted one of the zombies
“But just so you know I HATE YOU!!” shouted the first zombie

“yeah yeah I know that!”

Later on Adrian knew war would start soon around a month.
He ran to the army’s hideout.
They where teaching other soldiers how to fight.
He came into the line and started marching.
And having practice fights.
Adrian was not very strong but he kept getting up.
After 8 days of practicing, he still never ended up learning.
But finally, 15 days later he got stronger
He stood up as one of the strongest army men there.
It was finally time for the war.
That night a grenade went off.
200 soldiers had already died, Adrian stood up and told his men to split up.
They all ran opposite directions.
But Adrian ran into one of the zombies.
He took out his gun, and the zombie took out his sword.
Adrian felt that he wasn’t ready, but he fought anyway!
The zombie was very very strong and he did not give up and neither did Adrian.
Adrian was very sweaty he punched and punched and slapped and slapped but it was no good, the zombie was too strong!

“you idiot you're fighting your best friend!” said the zombie.
“i’m you're favorite elf!”
“you’re you’re the elf? My best friend?”
“yes Adrian, they did this to me and now I'm a stronger person!”
“I'm never going to fight you then!” said Adrian.
“I never fight my friends!” he said
“well you’ll regret that idiot!” said the elf zombie.
“You do not know my name and i soppose I will tell you before you die!”

“my name is…!”
Suddenly a rock exploded and THWACKED the elf on the head then other bits of rock fell on his body!
He was stuck.
“You'll regret you even lived you idiot, I HATE YOU!!” cursed the elf
Adrian shot the elf to tell him he’ll die being bad.
Suddenly the elf right after Adrien shot him, started turning back into a normal elf!
“What the heck happened?” asked the elf

Finally the elf threw the rock away and Adrian took the really injured elf to their hideout to get help from his army doctor.
Adrien ran back out and kept fighting. Army men and drones planes and all kind of stuff like that.
Shasha came back and saw how strong adrien was.
“Wow he’s a good fighter!” she said.
She came into battle and got her sword out and started fighting (she was more used to sword cause she’s an elf!)
But saddly the zombies where getting more powerful and more army men were dying

---

They fought and fought and fought but the zombies where winning.
After ages everyone was as tired as ever but Adrien didn’t give up.
Suddenly the biggest bomb that adrien ever saw just went off and hit 5000 men.
Including Shasha and Adrien.
“Urghh!” shouted Adrien in pain.
“Shasha go call the army doctor to come here! I can’t walk!”
Shasha wasn’t in too much pain, so she was able to do it.
Shasha came into the hospital and searched for the doctor.
She suddenly saw the elf lying in a stretcher, and he was very weak.
Shasha was shocked who could of half murded the poor elf like that?
She looked at the elf and the elf looked back and Shasha and kissed the elf.
Some army men saw them and giggled.

But the elf and Shasha did not care

Suddenly Shasha remembered she had to get the doctor for Adrien

She ran to find the doctor.
Meanwhile Adrien was lying on the floor in pain when a zombie came up.
“poor liitle baby! He can’t stand up and fight some butt!”
“Come on Shasha!” said Adrien to himself.
“its time to kill you!” said the zombie.
The zombie jumped up and was about to shove the sword through Adrians brain but Shasha came right up and stabbed the zombie.
“owwww!” shouted the zombie.
“Thats what you get for scaring the crap out of Adrien!”
“thanks” said Adrian “But you should get me to a hospital!”
You're right said Shasha picking up Adrian into her hands.

At night things calmed down a little.
Adrian and Shasha had a bed for themselves Shasha was in bed lying awake.
She was very worried about Adrien becuase he was hurt very badly and didn’t have a very good chance of living.

She decided to get out of bed and get some air she thought it may help her.
She stepped outside and saw the lovely beautiful moon.

She saw the stars.
She saw the lovely night time sky.

Suddenly 30 zombies ambushed her.
She screamed!
They tied her up.
“HELP!” she screamed.
She had no weapons.
Adrien woke up from her scream.
He said weakly to one of the soldiers “go on outside they’ve got the princess!”
But that man was asleep.
Adrien tried to get up but it was no use, he was to weak!
Suddenly a man taking a bath jumped right out (naked) and went for his gun.
He shot outside and ran to the zombies.
He shot them but there was far to many zombies.
He was also naked and had to armor a zombie instantly shot him and killed him.
They took Shasha into there tank.

They whacked her and punched her until she was knocked out.
6 weeks later war was still on and everyone was very tired.
The elf had a long good rest and same with Adrien.
They where both now ready to fight.
The elf was so so worried about Shasha he had no idea what those freaky zombies would do with her.
Meanwhile zombies where hanging Shasha “tell us everything about your friend!” said one of the zombies
“never!” said Shasha.
“alright then we’ll bury under the trap dungeons we made!”
“what do you want any way you freaking idiots!” shouted Shasha.
“we want you’re precious elven gold!”
“WHAT!!” shouted Shasha
“i’ll never give you that!”
“Alright then you die!”
Meanwhile in battle Adrian and the elf came to join.
“I see you grew a beard!” shouted Adrian to the elf
“yep i didn’t have any time to shave! You know how it is!”

Adrians army were getting closer and closer to the zombies hideout.
Finnaly they it and there they saw Shasha being whipped and whipped

Her clothes where so so torn.
After a little while Adrian and the Elf saw the zombies untie poor Shasha.
She fell to the ground crying in tears.
“NO!!” Shouted Adrien and the elf.

“Either you stop this freaking battle or she dies!”
“NO just let me die!” said Shasha.
“NEVER!!!” shouted the elf and Adrien as them and there army ran toward shasha.
“My true love will never die!” shouted the elf to the zombies.
They ran and fought.
Adrian reached Shasha.
“thank you for saving my life” Said Shasha.

Chapter 5: Back home

Finally after ages and ages of fighting zombies were losing.
“whoo that was very difficult!” said the elf in 15 weeks.
They where so busy they didn’t even have any time to shave, so they looked like old bogans.
“they finnaly had got a well earned rest.
They had no idea how all the zombies were disappearing maybe because they killed themselves because they were angry but... nah thats to stupid!
Finnaly they had time to shave chat rest and bath.
8 weeks later the zombies never came back and fought.
The zombies had 99 men and the army men had 300.
They knew for sure they would lose.

Later on they packed there bags and went home.
There troubles were still not over yet.
The elf had to get Adrian back to the year he should be in 1904.

They sat down and talked.
“how should i get back to my young age.
“i have no idea but all i do not know is how to open the portal back.

Shasha came in telling them the news.
“Robot Giant found munching up humans! That's what's on the news
Today! What is the world coming to next?” asked Shasha
“I've no idea but it’s strange!”
Suddenly they heard a knock at the door!
“what is it now?” asked the elf.
Shasha let the man in, but...
It wasn’t a man it was a child.
A 5 year old.
He was crying!
“waawaawaa!” cryed the baby.
“What is it darling? asked Shasha
“Mama’s dead!” cryed the child.
“why is that sweety?”
“a giant robot came and picked mama up by the legs tore her clothes of then ate her!”
Shasha knew this child, it was her nephew!
That also meant Shasha was very sad but she hid it though.

Suddenly a huge giant hand smashed through there wall and whacked them all.
Shasha shouted to the child “RUN!”
The monster (it was a giant robot) suddenly picked up the elf.
“Give me you're elven gold!” said the robot
“I’LL NEVER DO THAT!” shouted the elf.
“we’ll see!” shouted the giant robot.
Suddenly the robot threw the elf down to the city floor.
He smashed right into the floor!
Back in the house Adrien ran out the window (it was a double story house!) and jumped onto the huge giant.
“i fear nothing!” shouted the giant robot.
“LET HIM GO!” shouted Shasha.
She jumped out the window to and jumped to the robot.

She smashed a hole inside the robot then jumped in it she started smashing the wires inside it and finally she smashed the brain wire.
She jumped back up on top of the robots head.
Adrian was watching on the giants arm and was holding on very tight

Because the robot was swinging its arms everywhere.
As soon as Shasha had snapped the brain wires the robot (giant) fell right down and smashed a lot of the city.
At that moment Sasha and Adrian jumped back into their window.
“Whoo that was very hard!” said Adrian.
Suddenly a portal opened.
“what in the world is that?” asked Adrien.
“i’ve no idea but i think we should go in.
Adrien looked and smiled at Shasha.
“i think this is the last time I will see you Sasha!”
“What What do you mean?” asked Sasha
“I mean if I walk into this portal I’ll never come out in this place again!”
Suddenly adrien ran up to Sasha then they kissed

Then Adrien and the elf ran into the portal then it closed.
Shasha sighed.
Inside the portal the Elf was floating in the air and they all thought they were stuck because there was no way to get out.
Then a ginormous zombie just reached out for the elf.
“give me you’re precious jewels I know you have them!”
Adrien was there and said “put him down!”
“haha I like this man!” shouted the zombie.
The elf said “if you put me down I will give it to you!”
“Alright!”
The giant zombie put the elf down.

Suddenly the elf ran up to the zombie and threw his sword into the zombies brain.
“good aim” said Adrien.
“thanks but we got to get you home!”
The elf looked behind him and there was a portal Adrien knew it was time to go into his world.
“here take this i cannot have it in my world!” said the elf putting out the gold into Adrien's hand.
“the zombies can never come into your land so I'll put it with you!”
“thank you so much friend! I’ll keep it for life!”
“Adrien took the gold then walked out of the portal.
And he waved and even some tears dripped down his cheeks because he knew this was the last time he would see his friend.

The elf waved goodbye, and so did Adrien.

“goodbye Adrien and I never told you my name... may name is...!”
Suddenly the portal closed.
“goodbye my friend.
Adrien was happy he was back home but was sad because the elf wasn’t there any more.
He ran home and hid his precious gold for safety but he mainly used it for a reminder of the elf.
Back where Shasha was the elf had just returned.
“hello” said Sasha “were is Adrien?”
“he isn’t here” said the elf.
“he’s at his home!”
Sasha was sad but she knew that Adrien was happy there.

But inside Adrien he always knew Shasha and the elf would be there!

Until next time, he’ll always be happy with the life he was living.

The end. until next time.
